Defending Our National Treasure: A Department of Defense Chesapeake Bay Restoration Partnership 1998–2004 includes the following sections:

- Overview of major issues impacting the Chesapeake Bay;
- History of the Department of Defense’s involvement in Bay restoration efforts;
- Department of Defense restoration initiatives;
- Specific case studies of restoration efforts; and
- View Points of various key individuals in Chesapeake Bay restoration.

These topics are presented in a richly illustrated style including maps, photographs, conceptual diagrams, and figures to uniquely communicate information and make this information accessible to a broad audience. In addition, the Department of Defense’s approach to restoration and protection provides widely-applicable examples for other organizations facing similar challenges.

As one of the largest federal landholders in the Chesapeake Bay watershed, the Department of Defense’s efforts have an important role in the restoration and protection of the Chesapeake Bay. While these efforts continue, this report captures and summarizes the diversity and scope of the Department of Defense initiatives in the Chesapeake Bay watershed.
